

SHOPE CEMETERY
Green Township
Scioto County, Ohio

Shope Cemetery is located on Harold Staker's farm on Powellsville Road, about 3/4 mile west of Powellsville, Green Township, Scioto Co., Ohio. There are two different parts of the cemetery, but both have Shope family members buried within. One is in the pasture on the south side of the road, and the other is up on the hill in a wooded section. These inscriptions were copied October 26, 1980 by Caryn R. Shoemaker, CGRS. In both cemeteries, there are graves unmarked by stones, or marked only by fieldstones.

Footstone for J.S. next to Mary's grave.

We searched the ground, as most of these stones were buried under leaves and soil, but could not find a headstone for what I presume is John Shope Senior's grave.)
